Bulleted lists may be included and should look like this:

Please do not alter the formatting and style layouts which have been set up in this template document. As indicated in the template, papers should be prepared in one column format suitable for direct printing onto paper with trim size 210 x 297 mm. ## 2.1. Section headings [Alt+8]

Section headings should be left justified, bold, with the first letter capitalized and numbered consecutively, starting with the Introduction. Sub-section headings should be in capital and lower-case italic letters, numbered 1.1, 1.2, etc, and left justified, with second and subsequent lines indented. All tables should be numbered with Arabic numerals. Every table should have a caption. The figure number and caption should be typed below the illustration in 10pt and center justified. Headings should be placed above tables, left justified. Only horizontal lines should be used within a table, to distinguish the column headings from the body of the table, and immediately above and below the table. Tables must be embedded into the text and not supplied separately. Below is an example which the authors may find useful.

An example of a column heading	Column A	Column B

$$\sum_{i=0}^n \frac{B_i}{(1+r)^i} - \sum_{i=0}^n \frac{C_i}{(1+r)^i} = 0$$

6. Footnotes [Alt+7]

Footnotes should be avoided if possible. Number them consecutively throughout the article<sup>1</sup>. The footnotes should be typed single spaced, and in smaller type size (8 pt), at the foot of the page in which they are mentioned, and separated from the main text by a one line space extending at the foot of the column.

Please do not change the margins of the template as this can result in the footnote falling outside printing range

Please ensure that every reference cited in the text is also present in the reference list (and vice versa). Any references cited in the abstract must be given in full. References must be listed at the end of the paper. Do not begin them on a new page unless this is absolutely necessary.
